17 Ways of Giving to Aspen Academy
Dear Friends,

A good school looks to the vanguard of education to see where they are headed. A great school is the vanguard of education… and keeps pressing forward.

Today we know that knowledge flows from open and rigorous inquiry and we direct that inquiry through our commitment to academic rigor, character and leadership, and community strength and service.

Our students are thriving. Our community is robust. Our leadership is committed to our vision of creating a national model school that invites the best from and for our students, faculty, families and community.

Aspen Academy’s commitment is to prepare our students for the changes and challenges that await them as future leaders. Over the years, you’ve seen our pledge to create programmatic spaces that seek to inspire and edify our students in academics, athletics, technology, visual and performing arts and leadership development.

But we cannot rest. We continue to mine for the most effective teaching methods and curriculum that will best harness and create passion and global appreciation within our students. As the world becomes flatter through technology, true global citizenship is a must, not a luxury. We realize that we must develop leaders for the world who can bring people together in positive and productive partnership.

Because of you and your support, we know we will continue to achieve new heights. We couldn’t ask for better partners in the educational journey. Together, we are forging the leaders of tomorrow, today.

Thank you for all you do to help make this possible and the inspiration you give to each of us every single day.

Message from our Board of Trustees Chair

Dear Friends,

My first year of being the Chair has been an incredible one. Your generous support bolsters Aspen Academy’s pursuit of excellence as we strive to create a community that is not just a school, but fertile ground. Whether you are volunteering at events like Rake up Aspen, the Fall Carnival, the father-daughter dance or dedicating your time helping in the classroom, the library or cafeteria, none of this would be possible without you. Your contributions to the Capital Campaign, the Annual Fund, and the gala support our ability to keep our promise to you. Aspen relies on support from donors in 3 major areas:

Annual Fund: Supports financial aid, professional development for teachers and academic programming

Capital Campaigns: Assure that the campus has the facilities and resources to further our mission

Gala: Funds critical need for our campus and community

The board joins me in saying Thank You to each and every member of our community, parents, students, faculty, staff, alumni, and friends for all that you give to Aspen Academy – trust, time, engagement, financial contributions, talent, and teamwork. We couldn’t do it without you. We truly have the most generous community that is always willing to support the school in any way possible. Thank you for your support!

Sincerely,

Chris Richardson
Chairperson of the Board

Dear Friends,

The 2014-2015 School Year was yet another time when Aspen Academy saw aspirations transform into realities because of the generous philanthropy of alumni, parents, grandparents and friends. Under the Building the Future Capital campaigns, I am Aspen Academy Annual Fund campaign and special events such as the Gala and Grandparents and Special Friends Day, campus enhancements are being pursued, long-term financial health is being augmented and near-term needs are being supported. For all that Aspen has been able to accomplish in partnership with our extended community, the Board of Trustees say Thank You!

Donations to the Annual Fund under the banner of I am Aspen Academy last year totaled $229,740, with 97% of our families contributing. $76,580 of this money went to financial aid, where 10% of our deserving families received assistance. Professional development for teachers accounted for another $76,580, and 100% of our teachers received at least 1 hour of teacher training last year, including 4 language arts teachers who went to the prestigious Lucy Caulkins writer's workshop at Columbia University. Finally, the last $76,580 was used to help augment the STEAM program. Our Building the Future campaign raised $347,714 and Aspen was able to embark on our STEAM campaign, funding 9 different creative spaces, highlighted by the new coding, robotics, computer building, music composition and music recording labs.

It has been my pleasure to serve as Advancement Chair, and I look forward to working with you in the coming year. We are fortunate to have such passionate, committed members of the Board of Trustees who give so graciously of their time and work so diligently on Aspen’s behalf. It is a privilege to serve with them and collectively, with the entire Aspen community, we look forward to continuing our momentum in the coming year.

Sincerely,

George Sparks

“I was really lucky to be able to come to Aspen on scholarship. The school I was at before, the kids didn’t really plan ahead, they never really thought about what would happen to them if they took certain actions. Aspen taught me to plan ahead, to ‘begin with the end in mind’ so that I could figure out what I wanted. I was able to get a scholarship to go to Culver and that is worth over $220,000 when I will be all done with school. I could have never done it without Aspen. Aspen changed my life.”

– Alana Valdez, 2014 Aspen Graduate

“Thanks to the Annual Fund, I was granted the opportunity to attend the Writing Institute at Columbia University’s Teachers College in New York City. During this week long conference, I learned powerful and impactful ways to set up a writer’s workshop so that learners feel safe to go on their own adventures and take risks as they prepare to execute a new skill. A new writing assignment should never be viewed as mountainous! It should excite. As a teacher, I have learned to persevere through unforeseeable challenges because I believe in something bigger for every student.”

– Kricket Servis, 2nd Grade Language Arts
Aspen is embarking on a two-year, $615,000 campaign to build a STEAM lab. STEAM (science, technology, engineering, arts and math) is an acronym for the most forward thinking concept in education today. Staying at the forefront of education requires us to anticipate and respond to the changing educational, cultural and economic environment around us. Through the incredible philanthropy of its donors, Aspen raised over $337,000 to complete this and other projects. Some of the labs funded in the STEAM campaign include robotics, computer building, and coding labs, in addition to recording and technical theatre studios!

Thanks to the generosity of the following grandparents and special friends of our current families, we have the means to provide the best possible educational experience to our students. We are sincerely grateful that our grandparents and special friends are such an active and important part of the Aspen Academy community. Special thanks to Linda and Jack Keenan, grandparents of George, Luke, Reid and Tahna Wilfley, and hosts of Grand Day 2014.

The goal of Grandparents and Special Friend’s day 2014 was to raise money for the STEAM labs. The community came together and raised over $51,000. As a result, Aspen has several new STEAM labs and is the vanguard of STEAM education in the country.

A Conversation with the Sonin Family

What brought you to Aspen Academy?
Great luck! We were recommended to Aspen Academy by a friend who enrolled his two daughters. We were looking for a pre-school for Aaron 2-3 days per week. Evan was still an infant.

What was it about the school that made you choose Aspen?
We were impressed and reassured while meeting everyone and going through the interview process that Aspen Academy was a great fit for our family. We often jokingly said that if Aspen Academy could deliver everything they promised, it would be child neglect not to send them here! Also, during assessments, we were struck by the kindness of the other families we met.

What do you appreciate most for you sons and family?
There are many things we appreciate regarding Aspen Academy. But the most simple yet profound fact is our kids want to go to school every day. And when asked how their day went, their replies are always positive. We love that they want to go to school and that they enjoy being there. Additionally, we feel teachers and staff really know our boys and can support them where they are each day.

Can you tell us a time when Evan or Aaron came home excited about something they had done in class that left a lasting impression on them?
The lasting impression is often seen in our basement. We frequently have Rube Goldberg contraptions or other projects learned in school set up in our basement. Furthermore, we often have great discussions and debates at the dinner table regarding something being taught currently in class. The lasting impressions are not only on the boys.

Why does your family make Aspen a priority for giving for your family?
We want other students and families to have the ability to enjoy Aspen Academy as our kids have done. The entire staff give everything they’ve got to make Aspen a great place to learn and thrive. We feel it necessary to support that.

“The thing I love about Aspen is that everyone is very welcoming and people are kind to one another.”
– Aaron Sonin
What brought you to Aspen Academy?
Previous to Aspen, I worked in a nearby school and watched Aspen Academy grow and become something exceptional that I wanted to be a part of. The strong emphasis on entrepreneurship, community strength and service, and leadership made it a perfect fit for my personal values.

What inspired you to become a teacher? Was there a certain teacher that influenced you?
I worked as part of a development team in a science museum in a major city for seven years. I worked closely with the education department to fund the projects they developed and saw the direct impact the museum had on kids. I saw kids become really excited about computers, science, math, and engineering. This influenced me to want to work directly with young kids in these academic areas.

What do you like about Aspen?
I love the students, families, faculty and staff at Aspen because people are focused on what’s best for the kids.

What is your favorite part of Math to teach?
My favorite part of math to teach is strategies for solving contextual problems. These types of problems open the door for students to have a lot of valuable discussions that help develop meaning. When students communicate ideas about math, they develop a better understanding of their own thinking.

What do you do with your time outside of Aspen? I love to spend time with my husband and our two dogs, read, travel, and be active outdoors.

2015 Alumni Reunion and Legacy Leaders

2015 Alumni Reunion

The Alumni games and picnic were held and June 3rd, 2015. The alumni attended graduation, played games against each other and ate lunch on the sport courts. This was our largest alumni attendance to date, and we hope to have even more next year!

2014-2015 Legacy Leaders

Each year Aspen Academy honors a graduating eighth grader as our Legacy Leader. Legacy Leaders are chosen for their exemplary leadership, outstanding character development, and strong academic achievement. Photos of Legacy Leaders are placed on the Legacy Leader wall in the Middle School with additional story boards following their life to be included. The goal of the Legacy Leader program is for current Aspen middle school students to watch the lives of graduates unfold as well as create a legacy for our outstanding graduates. Our 2015 graduating class was so exceptional, that we named two legacy leaders: Emma Murphy and Madeline Wallace.

Over the past year, we have watched Emma’s natural leadership ability bloom as a key member of the Bears Café cohort. Through effective leadership, she organized and managed her teammates to make sure the café ran smoothly. In addition, she challenged herself immensely by traveling with the 8th grade to Costa Rica and acting as a servant-leader by participating in homestays with families who spoke no English. Emma is now attending Kent Denver where she continues to flourish academically, as well as being a strong leader in the community.

Madeline showed her ability to lead her class from day one. She was a vocal leader in the Bears Broadcast cohort and often served as the executive producer for their bi-weekly broadcast. Maddie inspired her classmates by putting in extra time during lunch and after school to make sure that each broadcast was perfect. She also went to Costa Rica and served as an inspiration to her classmates by her ability to speak Spanish to anyone. Maddie now attends Arapahoe High School.

Be Groovy. Party with a Purpose, Gala 2015

On Saturday, April 25th Aspen hosted its 5th Annual “Party With A Purpose” gala to raise money to help fund our STEAM Labs. The theme was the 1970s and there were lots of platform shoes and bellbottoms! The Gala was attended by over 350 people and raised over $216,536 before expenses.

The Gala was chaired by Trina Sandler who led a group of over 20 volunteers that created a memorable evening. Hundreds of hours were spent organizing this amazing event. Thanks to all of the volunteers and donors who made this such a groovy success!

Aspen’s Fall Carnival

Each school year begins with our fall carnival. This traditional has become beloved by all of the Aspen community. The funds raised by this event go directly to support the Annual Fund. Thank you to the 2014 carnival sponsor Perky Jerky and Co-chairs Eloise Proctor, Nancy Vogel, and Courtney Waugh-Schreiber. A giant thank you to the huge number volunteers who make this fun event possible!

Head of School Reception

Held at the home of Aspen parents Jane and Eric Tupler, the Head of School reception thanks our leadership donors.
Ways of Giving to Aspen Academy

Aspen Academy remains committed to its founding educational mission, as well as to developing new ways of engaging our students. In order to fulfill that commitment, the school relies on private sources of income to augment our budget. We have been able to make countless physical improvements and curricular enhancements because individuals and organizations have invested in our mission. There are many ways that families can support the school and its mission.

Annual Giving

A tax-deductible donation to the Annual Fund is the most important gift you can make every year. Annual Giving provides essential support for Aspen’s outstanding academic programs, financial aid for deserving families, and professional development for faculty and staff. The success of annual giving is measured by total dollars raised and by percentage of participation. Unrestricted annual giving allows donors to make a tax-deductible contribution while enabling the school to allocate resources to the programs that need it most. While leadership gifts are crucial to Aspen’s financial strength, every gift matters. Contributions of any size are welcome and make a difference in the life of each Aspen student. Every gift is important to the success of the fund. Participation in the Annual Fund is a vital way for our community members to demonstrate their commitment and support of Aspen, its faculty, and its students.

Capital Giving

Periodically, the Head of School and the Board of Trustees identify building projects or programs that require large sums of money to implement. These capital improvements are investments in the school’s future. They are not funded through the Annual Fund but through Capital Campaigns. The financial support of our parents, grandparents, faculty, staff, and friends of the school make these projects a reality. If you are interested in making a capital investment at Aspen, please contact the Advancement Office.

The Gala

Every April, Aspen hosts The Gala, the largest parent fundraiser party of the year. A live auction, silent auction, and special appeal are all part of this fun evening. Funds raised from The Gala supports immediate needs at the school. In the past, proceeds have funded the athletic field, gym floor and middle school science labs.
